

The 20th Annual Parkinson's Disease Symposium for Patients, Caregivers, and Healthcare Providers

North Central Baptist Church: 8001 Northwest 23rd Avenue Gainesville, FL

MAY 21, 2022 9:00am to 1:30pm EST

8:00- 9:00 am	Registration in the Lobby	Feel free to look at the informational tables	Coffee, tea and light breakfast available until 10:00
9:00-9:05 am	Welcome: Irene Malaty, MD Director of the Parkinson Foundation Center of Excellence at UF in Main Room
9:05-10:00 am	Guest Speaker*: Jill Ostrem, MD Medical Director and Division Chief, University of California San Francisco Movement Disorders and Neuromodulation Center; Neurologist Parkinson's Disease Therapeutics – What's Coming Next?
10:00-10:15 am	Dance for Life Presentation and Participation
10:15-11:05 am	Beth Gibson, OTR/L, CDRS Driving and Parkinson's Disease
11:05-11:15 am	Break- water and drinks available
	Parkinson's 101- Breakout room	Experienced People with Parkinson's - Main Ballroom
11:15-11:55 am	Medications Tamara Stiep, MD	Gut bacteria and PD Rebecca Wallings, PhD
12:00-12:40 pm	Speech and Swallow in PD: Shared Mechanisms Serving Separate Goals Nicole E. Herndon, M.S., CCC-SLP, BCS-S Bryn Taylor, M.A., CF-SLP, Ph.D.	Advanced Therapies John Yu, MD
12:45-1:30 pm	Ask the doctor... Live!: Please write down or type your question and someone will come by and collect it. LIVE PARTICIPANTS: Please return to the Main Ballroom LUNCH- if you RSVP'd a special dietary lunch, please see Amanda Fessenden.

*The Robert B. Stockdale Movement Disorder Lecture Fund, established in 2010, to support movement disorder research at the UF College of Medicine. Donations to this fund, supporting this annual Symposium and other educational PD events can be made by contacting Stephen Figueroa at 352-273-5882 or sfig@ufl.edu.